

HEARTLESS ROMANTIC

What I'd give just to be, back in that dream
In your arms, the seconds come and then they're gone
I've got lips that need kissed, I've had chances near missed
But I know, I was only a moment

To you, you've made up your mind, so should I
But I'm still finding pieces, still finding pieces

Chorus:

I'm in deep with you, what am I to do,
Just a heartless romantic with nothing to lose,
Take me away with you, what do I got to do,
Just to make you see I am the one for you
A heartless romantic, for you,
A heartless romantic.

Sweep me up off the floor, lock all the doors
I'll be, whatever you're looking for,
We could stand on our toes, watch the world come and go
But I know, it's all just a moment

To you, if we're all out of time, tell me why
I'm still finding pieces, still finding pieces

Repeat Chorus

You've been running around, running around
Don't you know that I am still finding pieces
Still finding pieces, I'm still finding pieces of you.

Repeat Chorus
